Soldiers, guards, citizens, from Fort Shafter.

Let us get up into the superlatives at once. It is easier to discuss the new offering at the Blou in that key.
And one of the best things about it is that when you get up there you can stay, you don't have to come down for the minor chords of criticism.
Nothing has ever been nicer done by The Players, and nothing has been altogether more pleasing than this romantic comedy drama, "Hawthorne U.
S. A." which opened at the Blou last night.

But that does not begin to tell it.
To say it is pleasing is only a mild way of putting it. It delighted us, thrilled us, and above all made us laugh until we forgot every dull care in the world, forgot everything but the scene before our eyes. There is a blend of seriousness and hilarity, of sang-froid and Yankee determination, of love and adventure about this play that cannot be beaten. It is the cleaverest thing we have seen here.

And not alone is the play good, but it is performed splendidly. George Webb is at his best—for all of that, the entire cast is at its best. The result is that "Hawthorne U. S. A." makes one of the most delightful entertainments one could wish.

We won't reveal the plot of the play, except to say that Anthony Hamilton Hawthorne, a young American tourist, who has the distinction of having done things in New York politics and of breaking the bank at Monte Carlo, finds himself, quite by chance, in the beautiful but defunct kingdom of Borrovina. Scaling the garden wall of the palace at Oberon, he meets the Princess Irma.

From the time George Webb scales the wall, as "Tony" Hawthorne, until the last minute when he wins the princess, we laughed and smiled and followed the uncertain fate of the kingdom and "Tony's" love-affair with unbroken interest. Florence Oakley appears as the princess, and a pretty princess she makes. Jay Hanna plays Rodney Blake, Hawthorne's friend, and he is very clever in this part. Inez Ragan is cast as Kate Ballard, and Frank Bonner as her father, Senator Ballard. By doing a little "shadow" work, Blake discovers Hawthorne's secret garden meetings, and in order to do him a good turn, writes to his fiancee, Miss Ballard, and her father, to visit Borrovina, saying that the water there is great for rheumatism.

So by the opening of the second act, four Yankees are in Borrovina; and things are beginning to happen in that moneyless kingdom. On parade the king is shot at, the princess faints, "Tony" meets and defeats the treacherous prince, Vladimir. It is this meeting that brings on a splendid climax, one of the cleverest possible, for the second act.

Guy Hittner plays the part of Prince Vladimir. He is very good. And Jack Belgrave as King Augustus III, deserves equal credit. Percy Pryor is cast as the reporter on the Borrovina Cimeter, and to him "Tony" comes to be "put next" to the inside and underground affairs of the kingdom.

ELSA CROSS HOWARD ONE FEATURE OF SYMPHONY SOCIETY CONCERT

Elsa Cross Howard is not only a danseuse of the first rank, but is a musician whose versatility is shown by the fact that she will play violin parts at the concert of the Honolulu Symphony Society next Monday evening at the Opera House, and will also play the piano solo part of Liszt's Hungarian Fantasia. In this latter selection she will be accompanied by the entire orchestra.

The personnel of the orchestra follows:

Carl Miltner, director.
First Violins—Mrs. A. B. Ingalls, Mrs. R. D. Mead, O. E. Wall, Wm. A.
Love, Robt. A. Palmer, John Giffard, E. Langer, C. C. James.

ADVANCE GUARD OF MIGHTY JAPANESE WRESTLERS HERE

Heralding the early arrival of 57 of Japan's greatest and brawniest wrestlers, two well-known figures in the sporting world of Dai Nippon arrived this morning on the T. K. K. liner Shinyo Maru. They are K. Ya-manishi and W. Uchiumi and they are here as advance agents for the main body of wrestlers who will come in a few weeks to hold a series of tournaments in the islands.

Uchiumi is a former champion of Japan who retired unbroken from the

ELLIS BENEFIT WILL PRODUCE
GOOD TALENT

A splendid aggregation of singers and musicians will take part in Ernest Kaai's concert and from the reports from those who have attended the rehearsals the entertainment is going to be well worth while.

The numbers on the program to which a good many are looking forward are the ones which the Evans brothers—Thomas, Francis and Ka-nielu—will render. Tommy Evans has quite a reputation for his work with the guitar and it is said that no island boy can play that instrument with the steel as he can. The other brothers, Francis and Kanielu, are clever musicians and their appearance at any concert is welcome. The Evans boys took part in the Hul Nalu Festival and their numbers were considered among the best acts of the evening.

Ernest Kaai has secured the services of some clever hula dancers who will assist Mrs. Ellis, for whom the concert is given and it is said that Honoluluans and tourists alike are to see something new in Hawaiian dances.

Tickets for the concert will be on sale on Tuesday morning at Hawaii Promotion Committee.

CHORAL SOCIETY IS ABOUT READY FOR CONCERT OF MAY 29

Music lovers of Honolulu are looking forward to the concert to be given Friday evening, May 29, by the Choral Society. The well-balanced choirs of mixed voices will be assisted by a splendid orchestra, and as choral work is not so often heard here, the program should prove a most enjoyable one to all, especially to students of music.

Chorus and orchestra under the direction of Reginald Carter, are in splendid shape, working out the finishing touches.

Mendelssohn's "Hymn of Praise" will be followed by a group of secular part songs and glees.

Directors in charge of the concert are Mrs. H. M. Holt, Mrs. C. M.
Cooke, Jr., Miss Judd, Mrs. Davis, Miss Jane Winne, Reginald Carter, David Anderson and W. H. Soper.

Pryor handles this part very well.
Frank Bonner and Inez Ragan, as father and daughter, are excellent, particularly in the last act Bonner's clever work stands out.

One can go on down the cast and say nice things about them all. It is easy to say nice things of a company that has entertained you in the manner in which The Players did last night. And if you were not there last night, we might as well stop here and say that you have so far missed something really worth while in the way of a comedy drama.

that the music lovers of the city will gather in force at this, the first of a series of concerts by the Symphony Society.

the coming tourneys and Yamanishi will probably umpire.

MELTING-POT TO BE APPARENT AT
GYM. EXHIBITION

More than one hundred and fifty boys will take part in the gymnastic exhibition at the Y. M. C. A. games hall tomorrow evening. Every nationality in Honolulu will be represented.
Last night at Kaula Club there were 68 boys on the floor having their final practice before their stunts were to be staged for the public. Everything from the simple roll up to the combination back handsprings went through like clock work and the leaders have no anxiety but that the boys are going to perform in "top-notch" style tomorrow night.

The climax of the evening will center around the stellar work of four Philadelphia boys and the two Comatcho brothers of the Kaimuki Club.
These boys can now perform any acrobatic work seen on the stage and their clubmates are hoping for a large house to witness the drills and mat work.

The opening number is to be a drill by all of the boys. One hundred fifty boys will perform under their one leader. These boys comprise Kaula-Club, Kaimuki Club, Kakaako Club and Kaimuki Boys' Club.

The Punahele students, who have been assisting in the work at the clubs, are taking an interest in the occasion and a large number are planning to attend. The students at McKinley High have plans to send a delegation and, with the large number of parents and friends of the boys expected from Kaimuki, a large crowd is expected in the games hall.

your home—keep it handy—get a large, fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them; if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eruptions of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapiesin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.—advertisement.
